3. Confidentiality. Licensee acknowledges that the Proofpoint Products contain commercially valuable trade secrets and confidential information of Proofpoint ("Confidential Information"). Licensee agrees not to use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than to perform its obligations and exercise its rights expressly granted in this Agreement. Licensee shall use the same degree of care, but no less than reasonable care, to avoid disclosure or use of the Confidential information as Licensee employs with respect to its own Confidential Information of like importance. Without limitation of the foregoing, Licensee agrees that, during the Evaluation Period of this Agreement and thereafter for as long as is reasonably necessary for Proofpoint to protect its rights in the Confidential Information, it will: (i) hold such Confidential information in strict confidence; (ii) not disclose the Confidential Information to any third parties or use it in any way, commercially or otherwise, except as otherwise expressly authorized by this Agreement; (iii) not allow any unauthorized person access to such Confidential Information, without the prior written consent of Proofpoint. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Confidential Information need not be treated as such if it is or becomes: (i) published or otherwise available to the public other than by a breach of this Agreement; (ii) rightfully received by Licensee from a third party without confidential limitation; (iii) approved in writing for public release by Proofpoint; (iv) known to Licensee prior to its first receipt of such Confidential Information from Proofpoint, as demonstrated by documented evidence; or (v) independently developed by Licensee without use of or reference to the Confidential Information, as demonstrated by documented evidence.

4. Term and Termination. The Evaluation License granted herein will be for term indicated on the Product Evaluation Order Form from the date of shipment of the Proofpoint Products ("Evaluation Period"), provided, however, that Proofpoint may, in its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement at any time upon written notice to Licensee. Upon expiration of the Evaluation Period, Licensee will (i) return to Proofpoint all copies (including backup copies) in any and all media of the Proofpoint Products, and delete any such copies that are resident in the memory or hard disks of computers owned or controlled by Licensee. If any Appliances are used by Licensee in connection with this Agreement, Licensee shall return such Appliances to Proofpoint upon expiration of the Evaluation Period. If any Appliance is returned to Proofpoint in a condition other than "new" (normal wear and tear excepted), or if Licensee fails to return all or a portion of the Appliances to Proofpoint within thirty (30) days of expiration, Licensee shall be obligated to promptly pay Proofpoint the then-current list price for such unreturned or damaged Appliances.

5. Ownership. Proofpoint and its suppliers retain all right, title and interest in and to the Proofpoint Products and in all related patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets and any other intellectual and industrial property and proprietary rights thereto, including registrations, applications, renewals and extensions of such rights. Licensee retains all ownership rights in the Archiving Data and all data, text, files or materials that Licensee or its end-users provide, develop generate, create make available or use in conjunction with the Hosted Service.

6. Feedback. To the extent Licensee provides feedback related to the performance of the Proofpoint Products and suggestions for changes, modifications or improvements thereto, Proofpoint shall own all intellectual property rights in such feedback and feedback will be deemed Proofpoint Confidential Information.

7. No Warranty. The Proofpoint Products and the hardware on which it may be provided are licensed hereunder on an "AS IS" basis. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Proofpoint disclaims all warranties, express or implied, with respect to such Proofpoint Products, including but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose or use.

Components of the Software that are not Software are licensed by Proofpoint from third-parties under various licenses, including but not limited to GPL software licensed to Licensee under the GNU General Public License as published by the Free Software Foundation (GPL). Licensee must review the applicable license conditions. The licenses to the Public Software can be found on the media accompanying the Software or included in the Software files if the Software is delivered by electronic download. Customer may redistribute and/or modify the GPL Software under the terms of the GPL. Customer may obtain a copy of the source code corresponding to the binaries for the GPL Software and certain other Public Software (the "Source Files") by sending a request, with Customer's name and address, to Proofpoint at the address specified in the Order Form, in which case Proofpoint will mail a copy of the Source Files to Customer on a CD or equivalent physical medium. This offer to obtain a copy of the Source Files is valid for three (3) years from the date Customer licensed the Software.

10. Export Restrictions. Licensee agrees to comply fully with all applicable regulations of the United States Department of Commerce and with the United States Export Administration Act, as amended from time to time, and with all applicable law and regulations of other jurisdictions with respect to the importation and use of the Proofpoint Products.

11. General Provisions. The parties are independent contractors, and nothing in this Agreement is intended to create any agency, partnership or joint venture relationship between them. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without reference to conflict of laws principles. Neither party may assign this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder, by operation of law or otherwise, without the other party's prior written consent. Any purported assignment other than as provided under this section 11 shall be null and void. If any of the provisions of this Agreement are held to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, they are to that extent, deemed omitted. No failure by either party to enforce any of its rights under this Agreement will act as a waiver of such rights. This Agreement may not be modified without the prior written consent of both parties. The following provisions shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement: Sections 2 (solely with respect to Restrictions), 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 11.
